Calling All Community Groups, Organisations and Individuals Involved in Culture & Creative Sectors within County Waterford

Waterford City and County Council's Creative Ireland Culture Team is pleased to announce an open call for Waterford based creative practitioners, groups, organisations, communities and individuals to submit applications for funding for creative and cultural projects to be developed in 2018. This Creative Ireland open call is a countywide open call and applications are invited from artists, writers, performers, archaeologists, historians, archivists, or anyone involved in the creative or cultural arena in Waterford City and/or County.

Applications are invited from established individuals and groups, but those with little or no previous involvement in creative or cultural projects are also welcome.

The overall level of funding available ranges from €500 – €5,000 with a maximum grant of €5,000 being awarded to an individual project.

Full details and an application form can be downloaded from <http://www.waterfordcouncil.ie/departments/culture-heritage/creativeireland.htm>
