“Trading Place” Means a place in a designated area delineated by paint marking or different colour brick at pitch boundary. A trading place shall not exceed an area of 9 sq. metres.

“Licence Holder” Means a person to whom a licence has been issued or the licence holder’s servant or agent acting on the licence holders behalf.

“Authorised Officer” Means an employee of Waterford City and County Council or other person appointed by Waterford City and County Council for the purposes of the Act.

PART I

CASUAL TRADING AREA: Each of the lands described in Part III hereto and as set out in the attached Schedule of maps is hereby designated as a casual trading area for the purposes of the Act.

LICENCE: An applicant for a licence must pay the appropriate fee for the type of goods to be sold in the particular designated trading area. The licence shall indicate what goods may be sold and only such goods as are shown on the licence, and for which the appropriate licence fees have been paid may be sold by the licence holder. The Schedule of fees for designated trading areas are set out in Fees Bye-Laws made under the Casual Trading Act 1995.

An applicant for a licence for event trading must pay the appropriate fee for the type of goods to be sold under the appropriate heading as set out in the Fees Bye-Laws made under the Casual Trading Act 1995. A Casual Trading Licence may not be rented or sold by the holder.

TRADING PLACE: A licence holder shall engage in casual trading only within the space allocated to the licence holder in a designated area which space shall be identified by means of a description in the licence holders licence and delineated by paint marking or different colour brick at pitch boundary.

DISPLAY OF LICENCE NO: A licence holder shall prominently display the number of the licence at the licence holders trading place in such a position as to be clearly visible and easily legible to members of the public at all times during trading hours. If so requested the licence holder shall produce the licence on demand to any person.

STALL: A licence holder shall only use a stall or other like receptacle for carrying/displaying goods which is approved by an Authorised Officer of Waterford City and County Council and shall remove same at the end of each day's trading. Waterford City and County Council may remove any stall or like receptacle found in a trading place outside of trading hours. Stalls shall not exceed 2.5 metres in height.

OFFENCES: A person who contravenes a Bye Law shall be guilty of an offence.

PENALTY: Every person who shall offend against any of the foregoing Bye Laws shall be liable for every such offence on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding €1,269.74. Licences can be revoked for failure to stay within a casual trading pitch and/or failure to remove litter.

REPEAL OF BYE LAWS: From and after the date of commencement of these Bye-Laws, all previous Bye-Laws relating to the Casual Trading Act, 1995 heretofore made by Waterford City Council and by Waterford County Council shall be and are, from that date, repealed."

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS: The issue of licences for a trading place may be temporarily suspended by executive order to facilitate construction/development/maintenance of a roadway, footpath or other infrastructure or on adjoining sites or for other operational reasons.

ALTERNATIVE TRADING PLACES: An existing licence for a trading place may be temporarily suspended by executive order to facilitate construction/development/maintenance of a roadway, footpath or other infrastructure or on adjoining sites or for other operational reasons. As appropriate, alternative trading places within designated areas may be assigned by the local authority to existing licence holders following consultation, subject to availability.

EXEMPTIONS

Pursuant to Section 2 of the Act, casual trading does not include:-

- (a) Selling by auction (other than by Dutch auction) by the holder of a licence or permit for the time being in force under the Auctioneers and House Agents Acts, 1947 to 1973.
- (b) Selling to a person at the place where he resides or carries on business

- (d) Selling, during the period 1 May to 30 September in any year, by –
 - (i) The grower (within the meaning assigned to that expression by the Casual Trading Act 1995 (section 2(3)) Regulations 2004, or
 - (ii) Subject to the condition specified in relation to this subparagraph by those Regulations being satisfied, a servant or agent of the grower,of one or more of the following fruits and vegetables, namely –
 - (I) Strawberries, raspberries, blueberries, gooseberries, blackberries, loganberries, tayberries and currants,
And
 - (II) Potatoes having loose skins and which have been harvested prior to maturity.

Designation

- (i) The Council hereby designates the lands shown on the attached maps in Part 3, as places reserved where Casual Trading may be carried out. Where a previous historical right is designated the area designated in the document designated as an area where casual trading can be carried out is recognised under these bye laws as a place where casual trading can take place.
- (ii) A Licence Holder shall engage in casual trading only within the space allocated to the licence holder in a designated casual trading area, which space shall be identified by means of a description in the licence holders licence or delineated by a paint marking or in the case of a specified event or events at such other locations as may be approved by the council pursuant to Section 4(1) (a) (iii) of the Act.
- (iii) The Council hereby designates that each District Council may, on the recommendation of the Chief Executive, move a designated Casual Trading Pitch to another area that may be so designated within that district long as the total number of designated pitches within the district is not exceeded.

PART II

General terms and conditions

Section 1: Designated area trading pitch allocation policy

1. Persons wishing to register for a designated area Casual Trading pitch must complete an “Expression of Interest to trade” form.
2. Vacant pitches will be offered on a first come first served basis, except in the case of new areas which will be allocated by lottery.
3. A licence will not be granted unless all the relevant information required in the application process is supplied. Documentation must be supplied within 30 days of receipt of offer.
4. The acceptance of an application form by Waterford City and County Council does not guarantee the granting of a licence.
5. An individual who is not in a position to accept the offer of a pitch at the time, for whatever reason, but still wishes to be considered for a pitch must go back to the end of the waiting list.
6. Due to demand for spaces only one pitch per Casual Trading area will be allocated to an individual.
7. A Casual Trading pitch cannot be sub-let or sold.
8. Waterford City and County Council reserves the right to revoke a licence at any time during the licensing period for failure to comply with the licence conditions.
9. Licences are not transferable but consideration may be given in exceptional circumstances (i.e. in the event of either death or long-term illness of the licence holder) to the transfer of a licence on a Casual Trading pitch to an agent/assistant who is a family member subject to the following conditions:
 - a. The family member has been the registered agent of the licence holder and has been working with the licence holder on the pitch for a minimum of four years.
 - b. The family member who has been the agent/assistant must also have previously registered an expression of interest for a Casual Trading pitch with Waterford City and County Council before consideration can be given to the transfer request. Priority may be given in this instance over others on the waiting list.
10. Waterford City and County Council reserves the right to re-allocate any pitch that has been left unoccupied by a licence holder for a period of 4 weeks without reasonable explanation to Waterford City and County Council.
11. Agents must register an expression of interest if they wish to be considered for a Casual Trading licence to trade in a designated Casual Trading area.
12. An individual has no right or entitlement to succeed to a Casual Trading pitch.
13. Waterford City and County Council reserves the right, in the event of works planned or due to take place, to relocate existing traders in designated areas in or adjacent to works, into other available designated trading areas within the City & County Council functional area. This will be done following consultation with traders.
14. Licence holders must give two months notice if surrendering a pitch.

15. The Council may refuse an application if:
 - a. There is no available pitch at the location requested.
 - b. It is not a product allowed in that designated area by these bye laws
 - c. The proposed product is already available in the Designated Area.
 - d. The proposed product is already available in the locality.
 - e. The designation of the area is under review by the Council.

Section 2: Terms and Conditions of Trading

1. Only the licence holder shall engage in Casual Trading at the location specified in the licence.
2. No goods other than those specified in the licence shall be sold.
3. Trading shall be confined to the allocated location.
4. Trading shall be permitted between the hours of 8am to 9pm, unless otherwise specified in the licence.
5. The allocation of a trading place by the Council shall not confer upon the licence holder any tenancy or right to occupy or to transfer said trading place.
6. Traders selling food for human consumption shall comply in all respects with all relevant statutory obligations such as the Food Hygiene Regulations 1950 – 1989, the European Communities (Official Control of Foodstuffs) Regulations 1998 and the European Communities (Hygiene of Foodstuffs) Regulations 2000 in respect to the preparation and sale of foodstuffs the
7. All people engaged in Casual Trading must indemnify Waterford City and County Council and any person using the facility/service being provided, against any liability arising out of the use of the facility/service in question. In this regard public liability insurance of €6.4m (minimum) in the case of any one accident must be obtained and proof of same must be given by the applicant to Waterford City and County Council before any licence is granted.
8. A licence holder shall provide, at his/her own expense, a suitable receptacle that meets The requirements of Waterford City and County Council for the disposal of litter/waste and shall keep the trading place clean and tidy at all times.
9. Waterford City and County Council may remove any stall or like receptacle found in a trading place outside of trading hours.
10. A licence holder shall prominently display his/her casual trading licence in such a position as to be clearly visible and easily legible to members of the public.
11. A licence holder may nominate two agents to assist in the operation of a designated trading stall under the following terms and conditions:
 - a. There may only be two people operating the stall at any one time and each of them must be trading within one metre of the stall.
12. A medical certificate is required for prolonged period of absence.
13. The licence holder must be present at all times where practicable. It is acceptable that the licence holder be absent during holiday periods or due to illness but this absence must be advised to the Casual Trading Section as soon as practically possible.
14. A licence holder must at all times be able to produce a paper trail identifying the provenance of goods clearly identifying where stock came from.
15. The sale of counterfeit items is strictly prohibited.

16. All products must comply with the provisions of the General Product Safety Directive 2009/95/EC as transposed into Irish law by S.I. No. 199/2004 and if required display a “CE” mark.
17. All goods that are sold as “seconds” must be clearly identified as “seconds” at the point of sale.
18. While occupying a trading place a licence holder must obey all lawful reasonable requests of an authorised officer or a member of An Garda Síochána.
19. A licence member shall be deemed to have forfeited their licence if they have not traded at the appointed pitch for more than 4 weeks without reasonable explanation to Waterford City and County Council.
20. This licence may be revoked at any time if any condition of the licence has been or is being contravened.
21. The only generators which are acceptable for use should be of the Diesel variety.
22. A person engaged in Casual Trading shall not obstruct any business, premises, footpath, public road or public right of way
23. Stalls and all other articles must be removed after the hours of trading specified in the licence.
24. A licence holder trading in a casual trading area shall not be permitted to use a loud speaker or public address system and shall refrain from causing any nuisance or disturbance.
25. A person engaged in Casual Trading shall not conduct trading in a manner that causes or is likely to cause offence.
26. No licence holder or any other person shall interfere with or obstruct any officer, servant or agent of the Council engaged in the carrying out of any works of maintenance on any part of the casual trading area even where such work is carried out during trading hours.
27. The Council shall not be responsible for any property belonging to any person wherever deposited or left in any part of the casual trading area nor for any loss, damage or injury caused by the negligence of any licence holder, his agents, employers or customers.
28. The design and specification of stalls, or other like objects for the carrying/displaying of goods, shall be subject to prior approval and may be subject to guidelines issued by Waterford City & County Council.
29. During the days and hours of trading, no vehicles or objects shall be parked in designated Casual Trading area unless said vehicle or object is for the specific purpose of carrying on the trading to which the permit applies.
30. Trading vehicles, stalls, media for display, goods, etc. shall only be allowed in the Designated Casual Trading Areas during the hours covered by the licence. There shall be no overnight parking. No trader shall park any vehicle or object in the designated trading area so as to cause an obstruction on the public roadways footpaths or parking areas in the vicinity of the Designated Casual Trading Areas.
