5. SICAP

a. Annual Plan 2022 & Statement of Priorities 2022

A detailed presentation was made by MI. Bowe (WAP) and staff.

Following the presentation, Chief Officer D. Tuohy stated that the 2022 programme has been reviewed in detail. The draft plan was to be on IRIS by November 12th, however, Pobal have extended this date nationally with the exact extension date to be decided. Nationally, the SICAP budget has been increased by 10% and the Minister is currently deciding how the increased funding should be allocated, hence the extension to the deadline.

The members commended the work completed to date by WAP, given the difficult circumstances. They also highlighted the role of the LCDC in avoiding duplication of activities/delivery of services. D. Tuohy referenced the upcoming drafting of a new LECP with coordination of activities being an important element of the plan.

b. Update on the SICAP Case Study – MI. Bowe

It was agreed that this presentation was to be postponed until the December meeting.

(MI Bowe and staff left the meeting). M. Walsh agreed to abstain from decisions for the remainder of the meeting to balance the quorum in favour of the non public side.

c. Report from SICAP subcommittee

Chief Officer reported that the 2022 Annual Plan and Statement of Priorities had been addressed through the SICAP subcommittee and their engagement with WAP. These were reviewed in detail with WAP with the members satisfied with the planning and key issue identification. The three priorities identified are: 1) New Communities, 2) Older People and 3) Long Term Unemployed. The subcommittee were keen to stress that the needs of other groups that had been identified in previous years will not be left unaddressed e.g. disability and substance misuse. The adoption of the Statement of Priorities as proposed by the SICAP subcommittee was proposed:

Proposed: S. Cooke	Seconded by: D Howley
Abstentions: M. Walsh
Quorum achieved: Yes	Approved

d. Approval of SICAP December payment

Chief Officer stated that there had been tangible improvements made by WAP and that the SICAP subcommittee wish to recommend approval of the December payment.
